HOLD STEADY!

Response: After damage is dealt to characters you control, for each of those characters, you may spend X resources from that character's resource pool to cancel X of that damage.
“‘Coming, Mr. Frodo! Coming!’ called Sam, and flung himself from the bank, clutching at the departing boat. He missed it by a yard. With a cry and a splash he fell face downward into deep swift water. Gurgling he went under, and the River closed over his curly head.”
